Provider: Tracy Bess-Wilmington

Experience: She was a foster parent and worked with multi-system youth for 15 years. She is currently a HS Science teacher and has been married for 30 years. She currently provides S/L services to a male individual who works in a restaurant and is fairly independent. He would like to have a peer, someone he might become friends with. She is looking for another male or an older female for the 1 bedroom that she has available in the upstairs of her home. Important that the individuals have alone time as she and her husband both work. Important to work with people in her care to become more independent. She and her husband incorporate individuals in their home into their family unit – if they are interested – and include them in family vacations and activities. They are unable to accommodate sex offenders as they live within 1000 feet of a school
