GOOD LIFE AMBASSADOR

Overview

- This is a three-year contracted role open to people with developmental disabilities, ages 18 and older, who live in Cuyahoga County.
- A Good Life Ambassador (GLA) must be comfortable presenting to and speaking with a variety of people in the community, individually and in group settings.
- A GLA inspires and educates others by sharing his/her achievements, hopes, dreams and challenges to promote community inclusion for people with developmental disabilities.
- A GLA is expected to work up to 12 hours per month and will work closely with Cuyahoga DD's Community Inclusion Specialist, who provides on-going training and support.

Essential Responsibilities

- Participate in training and planning activities virtually or in-person;
- Assist in developing presentations and any related materials;
- Speak and conduct presentations, with or without assistance, at a variety of meetings and events throughout Cuyahoga County;
- Be able to arrange for your own transportation to and from events;
- Be available on a flexible basis, including some evening and weekend times; and
- Commit to attend weekly planning meetings.

Desired Qualifications

- Willingness to learn and enhance communication skills;
- Good time management skills;
- Dependable;
- Ability to speak to people 1:1 and in small and large groups;
- Willingness to travel to a variety of locations in the community; and
- Openness to meeting new people and working closely with other self advocates, provider groups and agencies.

Payment

A contract will be issued for payment not to exceed $1,600 covering the period of July 1, 2025 - December 31, 2025. Payment is issued quarterly based on completion of responsibilities. People selected for the Good Life Ambassador role must complete a Cuyahoga DD/CCBDD vendor packet. (Help is available to complete this.)
